THE VERMONT LAW REVIEW SERVICE AND INSPIRATION AWARD

The Vermont Law Review is pleased to announce the Third Annual Inspiration Award. The Award honors that member of the legal community whose dedication to the common good most inspires confidence in the Vermont Law School students and represents the idea that an individual's ideals can shape the future of law and society. This award recognizes the unique character and contributions of many devoted practitioners and other members of the legal community. Vermont Law School students voted for that member of the community whose work sets an inspirational example for others. This year, the recipient is attorney and professor Bernard S. Carrey.

Mr. Carrey joined the Vermont Law School community in 1998 as an adjunct professor. He remains a dedicated and respected member of the Vermont Law School community and continues to keep the students saavy on current business law and practices by teaching Securities Regulation and Advanced Corporations.

Mr. Carrey is also an adjunct professor at Pace University School of Law, a faculty member of the Bar/Bri Bar Review and counsel to Gould & Wilkie in New York City. Prior to his current positions, Mr. Carrey has held many prestigious positions including serving as Senior Vice President and General Counsel for Telmundo Group, Inc., Vice President and Deputy General Counsel of Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Co., a lecturer and panelist for the Practicing Law Institute, and as a partner for Webster & Sheffield.

The students have bestowed this honor upon Mr. Carrey because of his reputation of being a truly devoted professor who "loves his students and takes a genuine interest in them." Mr. Carrey consistently touches the lives of the students and people with whom he comes in contact with his selfless dedication to helping others. Even while injured, Mr. Carrey continued to travel from New York City each week to teach his fall classes.

Mr. Carrey is truly an inspiration to us all, and we are proud to recognize him with this Award.
