THE JONATHON B. CHASE PAPER

The Chase Paper Competition, named for the late Jonathon B. Chase,* third dean of Vermont Law School, was established in 1989 by Vermont Law Review to recognize excellence in writing among members of the third year class at Vermont Law School. Each year, Vermont Law Review selects one paper written by a member of the third year class to be the Chase Paper. Vermont Law Review is pleased to present the 1999 Jonathon B. Chase Paper.
